

THE PRESIDENT'S INTELLIGENCE CHECKLIST

ISSUED BY THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

30 JUNE 1964
~~TOP SECRET~~

50X1

1. Cyprus

a. The weekend alert of Greek Cypriot forces [redacted]

50X1

[redacted] was touched off by rumors of a military coup in Turkey, showing once again how little it takes to raise temperatures on Cyprus these days.

50X1

50X1

c. For their part the Greeks seem bent on creating a force which can delay a Turkish invasion until outside help can be brought to bear. They are also worried that the Turks may resort to guerrilla warfare which could be very tough to handle.

d. The Turkish Government alleges that 2,700 Greek military personnel have landed on Cyprus in the last ten days. The Turks say this could be the prelude to a Greek attack, perhaps today. Turkish spokesmen are again talking intervention.

50X1

2. Italy

a. As Segni takes up the thread of his consultations on a new government, the three coalition partners of the Christian Democrats have called for a reconstitution of the Moro government.

b. Christian Democratic leaders meet today, and there is no assurance that they will support another try at a center-left regime. They may be pushed in this direction by a distaste for new elections which they share with their Socialist associates.

c. Police throughout the country are on the alert lest extremists of the right and left try to take advantage of the confusion.

3. British Guiana

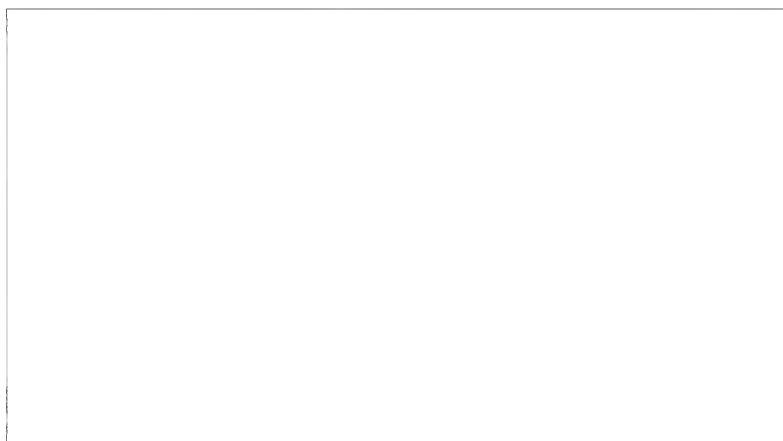

a. A harried Jagan is casting about for some means of extricating himself from his difficulties.

b. He is trying to line up US support for a coalition government in which his party and Burnham's would have a rough parity.

(Cont'd)

50X1

e. Another possibility, which may not recommend itself to Jagan, is [redacted] for a five-year UN trusteeship under New Zealand.

50X1

4. Cambodia

a. Sihanouk is having second thoughts about the wisdom of establishing permanent UN control posts along the Cambodian - South Vietnamese border.

50X1

(Cont'd)

c. He was doubtless influenced in this by De Gaulle, who, [REDACTED] 50X1 wheeled out all his considerable powers of persuasion to convince the Cambodian prince that UN involvement in Southeast Asia would be unfortunate.

d. US officials in Saigon have found no evidence that the South Vietnamese had any operation going in the border area where Cambodia charges another violation occurred last Wednesday.

5. Communist Agriculture

a. As the early harvests get under way, prospects in the USSR are favorable and point to a better than average grain crop.

b. The same is true of the European satellites, except for Bulgaria where drought and insects have posed serious problems.

c. It looks as if Communist China will have an early crop better than last year but still below average.

d. Hanoi has already claimed a good early rice crop, and information on growing conditions there lends credibility to the claim.

NOTES

- A. Congo Kasavubu today accepted the resignation of the Adoula government. This may be no more than a pro forma step to clear the way for a transitional government to run the country until a permanent one can be set up in six to nine months. Kasavubu had intended several weeks ago to rename Adoula, but with the interjection of Tshombé and others we cannot be entirely sure that he will follow through.
- B. Germany The West Germans are considering a goods for prisoners exchange with the East Germans. Under the deal the West Germans would provide $5 million worth of butter, ores, and chemical fertilizer to ransom 500 political prisoners in East German jails. [REDACTED]
- C. France De Gaulle's next press conference is now scheduled for 23 July. There are signs that he will devote considerable attention to the resurgence of nationalism in Eastern Europe and to France's historic ties with this area. He may follow this up with an offer of aid, perhaps in the nuclear energy field, to Rumanian Prime Minister Maurer who calls a few days later.

50X1

50X1

(Cont'd)

D. Pakistan

50X1

[Redacted]

E. Cuba Trade

50X1

Fiat may sell Cuba $2.5 million worth of diesel locomotives, switching units, and spare parts. The reason given is that the Italian industrial slowdown has hurt Fiat.
